

Insights found to have customer retention.

Total customer base consists of 7,043 customers.

Around 26.5% of customers have churned, indicating an opportunity to improve retention strategies.

Month-to-month contracts represent the largest customer segment and should be monitored closely for churn.

Electronic Check is the most commonly used payment method among customers.

The average monthly charge is 65, and the average customer tenure is 32.37 months, providing useful benchmarks for customer behavior.